Doyle, the Bogus Bond Dealer, Con victed and in Jail.

CHICAGO, June 4.—Although the jury in the Doyle forgery case did not render a verdict to-day, and although the verdict which they found to-night was sealed, it is an open secret that they found Doyle guilty of dealing in bogus government bonds. On the worn out this eventich, a bench-warrant was sworn out this eventich, this latter step was taken for the purpose of protecting his bondsmen, who are sureties in the sum of $25,000.
